Raider Infantry Battalion Task Forces under HABEMA Command brought smiles and support to the residents of Puyagiya Village in Papua's Sugapa District. On Thursday, November 14, 2024, led by First Lieutenant Wanianto of the Holomama Post, the Task Forces engaged in Social Communication (Komsos) with villagers during a routine area protection patrol. This mission not only strengthens security but also deepens trust, reflecting the Indonesian Armed Forces' (TNI) dedication to Papua's development.

The event turned into a joyful occasion when children from Puyagiya arrived at the Holomama Post, eager to connect with the soldiers. The troops warmly welcomed them, sparking laughter and lighthearted moments as they played games together and shared stories. The residents voiced their appreciation for the soldiers' presence, with a parent affirming that the area remains safe and peaceful. Young Ronal Tabuni expressed his gratitude to the soldiers, saying, "Thank you, Commander 509. God bless you," a simple yet profound message of appreciation.

Lieutenant Colonel Dian Dessiawan Setyadi, Commander of the 509 Task Forces, emphasized the importance of balancing security with compassion. "Our mission goes beyond protection; we're here to serve the community, supporting the well-being of those around us," he noted. This approach has been a hallmark of the 509 Task Forces' efforts since their arrival, ensuring they serve as both protectors and friends to local communities.

Brigadier General Lucky Avianto, Commander of HABEMA, recognized the Task Forces' commitment to building meaningful connections with the people of Papua, highlighting the importance of these efforts in fostering a positive environment for growth. "The 509 Task Forces exemplify TNI's dedication to inclusive communication and trust-building to support Papua's development," said Brigadier General Avianto. This acknowledgment underscores the impact of these small yet powerful gestures that bring hope and optimism for the future of Papua.

Through genuine acts of friendship and dedication, the Indonesian Armed Forces and Puyagiya's residents stand together, committed to creating a harmonious and prosperous future for all.
