YAHUKIMO- The Task Forces of the Infantry Battalion 6 Marines, part of the Indonesian Armed Forces Operational Command (KOOPS) HABEMA in Papua, is currently conducting mobile security at the border of Indonesia and Papua New Guinea, especially in the Yahukimo Regency area, Papua Pegunungan Province. On Monday, 12 August 2024, one Post from the Marines Task Forces, Bravo Post, led by Second Lieutenant Alter, conducted the "ROSITA" (Buy up Farming Products) belonging to a resident from the Dekai Village, Dekai District, namely Mr. Markus Paimuka.

The Commander of Marines Task Forces, Lieutenant Colonel Rismanto Manurung, has emphasized to the Soldiers that activities to help people's difficulties in their assigned areas are the priority in the main tasks of securing the area. Therefore, the Soldiers took advantage of their routine security duty on Monday morning by helping Mr. Markus's economy by selling his farming products.

During the Rosita program, the Soldiers had the opportunity to interact and communicate with Mr. Markus. They used their pocket money to buy and use the products for their daily food. Responding to the Rosita program, the seller was pleased because the Soldiers bought his merchandise. That morning, Mr. Markus was delighted with his revenue and said, "Thank you, Commander Marines, for buying my farming products. God bless."

"The initiative of the Marines Task Forces to buy up the farming products belonging to Dekai residents is the TNI's effort to help the people's economy, to support the acceleration of development in the Papua region," said the HABEMA Commanding General, Brigadier General Lucky Avianto, upon receiving the program report.
